Material Aspects:

G1 Execution Services, LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to G1X Execution Services at the following rates:

- (i) Marketable order, listed equity priced at $1.00 per share or more: up to $0.0022 per share
- (ii) Marketable order, listed equity priced under $1.00 per share: up to $0.001 per share
- (iii) Non-marketable order, listed equity priced at $1.00 per share or more: up to $0.003 per share
- (iv) Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: $0.003 per share

These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to G1X that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

CITADEL SECURITIES LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to Citadel Securities with respect to listed equities priced at $1.00 per share or more, at the following rates:

- (i) Marketable order: up to $0.0022 per share
- (ii) Non-marketable order: up to $0.003 per share
- (iii) Extended hours order: up to $0.001 per share
- (iv) Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: up to $0.003 per share

These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Citadel that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

Two Sigma Securities, LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to Two Sigma Securities with respect to listed equities priced at $1.00 per share or more, at the following rates:

- (i) Marketable order: up to $0.0022 per share
- (ii) Non-marketable order: up to $0.003 per share
- (iii) Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: up to $0.003 per share

These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Two Sigma that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

Virtu Americas, LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to Virtu Americas with respect to listed equities priced at $1.00 per share or more, at the following rates:

- (i) Marketable order: up to $0.00175 per share
- (ii) Non-marketable order: up to $0.003 per share
- (iii) Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: $0.003 per share

We do not receive payment for any extended hours orders, regardless of size or marketability. These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Virtu that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

APEX CLEARING CORPORATION:

We route orders of listed equities to our clearing firm, Apex Clearing Corporation, which further routes them to execution venues with which it has relationships. The execution venues may pay Apex for such order flow, in which case Apex retains 10% of such payment and pays us the remaining 90%. We do not determine or influence where Apex routes our orders. Further, we do not participate in any discussions concerning the payment-for-order-flow arrangements between Apex and the execution venues, nor do we influence those arrangements in any manner. See <https://www.apexclearing.com/sec-rule-606-and-607/> for reports concerning Apex's order routing practices, which we are adopting by reference.

- Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: up to $0.003 per share

These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Citadel that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

Two Sigma Securities, LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to Two Sigma Securities with respect to listed equities priced at $1.00 per share or more, at the following rates:

- Marketable order: up to $0.0022 per share
- Non-marketable order: up to $0.003 per share
- Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: up to $0.003 per share

These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Two Sigma that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.

APEX CLEARING CORPORATION:

We route orders of listed equities to our clearing firm, Apex Clearing Corporation, which further routes them to execution venues with which it has relationships. The execution venues may pay Apex for such order flow, in which case Apex retains 10% of such payment and pays us the remaining 90%. We do not determine or influence where Apex routes our orders. Further, we do not participate in any discussions concerning the payment-for-order-flow arrangements between Apex and the execution venues, nor do we influence those arrangements in any manner. See <https://www.apexclearing.com/sec-rule-606-and-607/> for reports concerning Apex's order routing practices, which we are adopting by reference.

Virtu Americas, LLC:

We receive payment for executed orders routed to Virtu Americas with respect to listed equities priced at $1.00 per share or more, at the following rates:

- (i) Marketable order: up to $0.00175 per share
- (ii) Non-marketable order: up to $0.003 per share
- (iii) Order greater than 10,000 shares or $250,000 principal value: $0.003 per share

We do not receive payment for any extended hours orders, regardless of size or marketability. These payment arrangements are conditioned upon regular attestations to Virtu that substantially all of the orders we route to them qualify as "retail" orders (i.e., originating from natural persons and not generated by trading algorithms or other computerized methods). Although we do not negotiate for higher payment rates in exchange for lower execution quality, in general there is an inverse (though not necessarily proportional) relationship between payment for order flow rates and price improvement.
