Ally Grant Guidelines

An Ally in Our Community

Ally is dedicated to helping organizations that make positive changes in our communities. One of our core beliefs is, we work better together. We affirm this belief by supporting organizations that help reduce barriers of economic mobility for individuals, families, and communities.

The issue of economic mobility affects all Americans, especially the most vulnerable in our society. Many groups lack access to the education, tools, and resources that can provide the foundation for a better future.

We give to organizations that work in the following areas:

- Financial Education: Programs associated with budgeting, credit, banking, investing, and overall financial literacy.
- Affordable Housing: Affordable housing programs and services related to housing assistance, community development, and neighborhood preservation that target underserved communities.
- Digital Job Training and Workforce Preparedness: Programs that provide job training, professional development, and workforce preparedness resources to assist underserved youth and adults with finding new job opportunities.

Eligibility Criteria

To apply for a grant, an organization must meet the following criteria:

Grant Guidelines

- All organizations must complete the eligibility quiz and meet all of the required criteria
